

Charles Deering McCormick
Library of Special Collections
Northwestern University Library

Ms. file

Frederick Kill Harford and Neville Lynn
Correspondence and ephemera

Frederick Kill Harford to Neville Lynn

26 June 1895. [London] 2pp. With envelope.

25 August 1895. 3pp.

29 January 1896. 3pp. copy of Harford's and Lynn's letters to the manager of Bickens in Leicester Square, London.

20 August 1896. [Ventnor] 2pp. FKH note with Lynn's comments on verso re:
meeting. With envelope.

21 August 1896. [London] 4pp. With envelope.

23 October 1896. [London] 2pp. With envelope.

[13 December 1896 per Lynn's note on verso] 1p. Poem "On Hobbies" inscribed to Lynn.

Lady Day, 1897. [n.p.] "Dei Gratia Deo Gratias," 1p. Typed poem on Queens Elizabeth and Victoria, A.D. 1597 and A.D. 1897, with Lynn note that it was received from Canon Harford on 2 April 1897.

25 October 1897. [London] 1p. lettercard with postal information on verso.

Neville Lynn correspondence, notes, and photographs

3 signed photographs

March 1922. Thornleigh, Harrow. 1p. Biographical note on his relationship with Rev. Frederick Kill Harford.

Miscellaneous pages of notes regarding FKH, books by FKH owned by Lynn and inscribed by FKH. 10pp.

Ephemera

Frederick K. Harford, Meet It with a Smile. Westminster: Aldine Press, 1886.

F.K.H., On "The Stage". 1p. from the Addendum to Musical Morals, 1855-1895.
2 copies, one inscribed.

Our Interviews: no. 6—Neville Lynn. 2pp. from Professional World, April 1894.

F.K.H., Heavenly Babe; a Christmas Carol for 1891. 1p.

Programs:

Garrick Theatre, Theatrical Choristers' Assoc. Annual Matinee,
19 November 1896.

Royal Victoria Hall. Mdll. Ghita Corri's Concert in memoriam. . .
Queen Victoria, 4 February 1901.