

Searching NUCat for Books on Tourism

Neither “Tourist industry” nor “Travel industry” are valid Library of Congress Subject Headings. Below is a list of some suggested subject headings that can be used in either the Search or Guided Search functions of the Northwestern University Library Catalog. All of the Subject Headings listed below may be subdivided geographically.

TOURISM—Use this term to look for information on the travel industry. It can be further subdivided by topical subdivisions or by name of continent, country or state.

For example:

- Tourism Kenya
- Tourism California
- Tourism Employees
- Tourism Government policy
- Tourism Law and legislation

Additional narrower terms for tourism are:

- Customs administration and tourism
- Ecotourism
- Heritage tourism
- Sports and tourism
- Volunteer tourism

TRAVEL—Use this term for works on the art of travel. May be subdivided by name of continent, country or state. For example:

- Travel Asia
- Travel Mexico

Narrower terms for travel are:

- Air Travel
- Automobile travel
- Bicycle Touring
- Bus Travel
- Business Travel
- International travel regulations
- Ocean travel
- Railroad travel
- Travel restrictions
- Voyages and travels
- Youth travel programs

Search also with geographic name (including city) and the subdivision DESCRIPTION AND TRAVEL. For example:

- Maldives Description And Travel
- London (England) Description And Travel
- Gary (Ind.) Description and travel

TRAVELERS. Use this term to find works on those who travel. May be subdivided by name of continent, country, or state. For example:

- Travelers Asia, Central
- Travelers Sri Lanka

Additional narrower terms for tourism are:

- Aged Travelers
- Foreign Travelers